Dear Editor,

I'm writing this letter to ask you for help. My husband and I are very (happy -worried- proud) about our son Richard. He is an intelligent and ambitious boy, whereas he isn't really a hard (work -works -working) pupil. In the last exams he had bad marks because he didn't study at all. As a result his teachers, (who -which -where) once great expectations of him, were disappointed. I told him to start studying again, (and - besides - however) he has now started saying that he doesn't want to study. What is worst is that he (gets-overspends-saves) all his pocket money on playing cards with his friends. After much fighting and arguing he demands now (more -less -most) money as a condition of studying. We are at a loss. What should we do ?

4-Put the words between brackets in the right tense or from :(2 marks)
