I/ READING COMPREHENSION (15 marks)

The Text

(1) Hundreds of people gathered on Friday to celebrate the life of a 17-year-old boy killed in a shooting earlier this month at a New Mexico high school in the city of Aztec. Family, friends and dozens of fellow classmates showed up to Pinon Hills Community Church in Farmington to remember Francisco Fernandez. He and Casey Jordan Marquez, also 17, were killed Dec. 7 when a gunman disguised as a student opened fire inside Aztec High School shortly after first period began.

(2) Authorities say 21-year-old William Atchison had planned the attack. The gunman shot Fernandez, then walked out into the hallway and encountered Marquez. He immediately killed her. With some calling him a hero, Fernandez's family remembered him as a teenager who loved sports, video games and hanging out with relatives and friends. A path leading up to the church was lined with 50 motorcycles. After the private service, a procession of lowriders and classic cars transported the family to the cemetery. About 100 people also lined the streets to glimpse the caravan and hold signs praising Fernandez.

(3) Sharon Schupla, of Farmington, said she got up early and made sure to come out with her family. She has a son who attended Aztec School. "We've always been very close to everybody in the area," Schupla told the Journal. School officials plan to transform a space damaged by the shooting into an open-learning area and dedicate it to the victims. Students are scheduled to return to school Monday. They'll start off the day with a special assembly before heading to class.
