

Med Ali Annabi School 2011_2012 Teacher : Mrs Abdellaoui	LISTENING TEST 2	Level :3rd Year Name..... Class :.....N :.....
--	------------------	--

I-LANGUAGE : (12marks)

Task 1 : Circle the right alternative to get a coherent paragraph.

Holidays To Hammamet - Rich In Culture

Hammamet holidays have been popular for a great many years. As the first holiday resort in Tunisia, it has a solid(generation – inflation – reputation) with more and more people coming back every year, and if you take your holidays to Hammamet, you (will- would-had) see why. Hammamet, Tunisia is located, naturally, (around- in- out) the Gulf of Hammamet on the north east coast of Tunisia. Hammamet weather is (warmest –warmer – warm) all year round, enjoying peak season temperatures averaging 30 to 35 degrees Celsius. The weather in Hammamet is (at last- thirdly – also) very dry, with very few rainy days in a typical year, making Hammamet holidays ideal for you sun-seekers. Hammamet(beach-bitch- witch) is made up of lovely white sand, complemented by (an- o-a) a gorgeous turquoise sea, ideal for working on your suntan. But Hammamet holidays (weren't- isn't - aren't) just about soaking up the rays, there are plenty of other things to see and do as well.

TASK 2 : Choose the right word from the box below to complete the text .

Out- concerned- excellent- genes- they- wars- blessing -could- disadvantages - our

Throughout history, science and technology have proved to be a see-saw of sorts, with the ups and downs, benefits and..... , increasing with time. Today, our quality of life in first-world countries is comparatively- life expectancy is high, general affluence is high, entertainment is readily available. But also we live with the terrible, ever present knowledge that one skirmish, one conflict, one mistake,..... destroy the delicate balance of the see-saw and our weapons are such that, if used,..... could entire cities, millions of people. Before, conflict onlya few dozen or hundred people with swords or spears, or a few thousand people with rifles. In the 20th century, tens of millions of people have died in violent

We pay the price for improved lives in blood and fear; maybe it's worth it, maybe it isn't. But all the same, there is a price.

Task 3 : Put the bracketed words in the right tense or form.

Finally, Dad accepted to take us for holiday abroad. That would certainly be (excitment)..... and different from all the holidays we (to have) in our country so far. I (be)..... personally eager to visit Greece. My brother longed to see Spain whereas my parents were thinking of (to visit) a north African country. They (believe) the summer there would be exceptional seeing the hot weather, the wonderful (sand) beaches and the historical monuments. At first we (confuse) because of the numerous suggestions of the travel agent. Then, we all opted for Tunisia, we (spend) there great time.

I- LISTENING : (8MARKS)

Greg gives travel tips on how not to get lost in a new location. Listen carefully and answer the following questions.

1) Which of these places has Greg not lived in?(1m)

- a) South Korea b) The United Emirates c) Saudi Arabia

2) What does Greg get from the information center at the airport?(1m)

- a) a map b) tourist brochures c) a hotel reservation

3) Greg always gets afrom his hotel.(1m)

- a) discount b) tour guide c) business card

4) Complete with information from the dialogue.(1m)

Greg thinks good people to ask for directions are:.....

5) Correct these false statements with details from the dialogue.(2m)

- a) Greg has never been lost.

.....

- b) While walking in a foreign country , Greg checks for beautiful girls.

.....

6) Spot- Dictation: Write the missing word.(0.5 m)

I ask them to write the

7) Function: What does the following utterance express? (1m)

What type of advice would you give them ?

- a) Asking about a Habit in the Past
b) Asking about Information
c) Asking about Intention

8) Are the underlined words Similar/Different? (0.5m)

airport- world

Good luck

